

I oppose any federal exemption for "established business relationships" amending the Indiana telephone privacy act.